

Section 8 Company Registration Fees: A Quick Guide

Starting an NGO in India? A Section 8 company is a great option. It is ideal for promoting charitable activities. But before you begin, it's important to understand the costs involved. Let's break down the Section 8 company registration fees and the process.

What is a Section 8 Company?

A Section 8 company is a non-profit organization. It operates for social welfare, education, charity, or similar purposes. Unlike other companies, it does not aim to make profits. Any income or profit is used only to promote its objectives.

NGO Procedure for Registration

The NGO procedure for registration of a Section 8 company involves several steps:

1. Name Reservation: Apply through the RUN (Reserve Unique Name) form on the MCA portal.
2. Digital Signatures (DSC): Get DSCs for all proposed directors.
3. Director Identification Number (DIN): Apply for DIN if not already available.
4. Incorporation Filing: File the SPICe+ form with required documents.
5. License Application: Apply for the Section 8 license under Form INC-12.
6. Approval: Once approved, the company is officially registered.
- 7.
8. This process can be technical and time-consuming. That's where Tax NGO Experts, in partnership with NGO Experts Company, steps in. They provide full support for smooth registration.

Section 8 Company Registration Fees

Now, the most asked question – how much does it cost?

The Section 8 company registration fees usually include:

- Government Fees: These vary depending on the authorized capital.
- Professional Fees: Charged by consultants like Tax NGO Experts for handling the process.
- Document Costs: Notarization, affidavits, and stamp papers.
- DSC and DIN Charges: Required for directors.

On average, the total cost can range from INR 6,000 to INR 15,000, depending on the services included.

Tax NGO Experts offers affordable packages. They ensure 100% transparency and quick processing. Their team takes care of everything – from documentation to final approval.

Final Thoughts

Registering a Section 8 company is a noble step. It allows you to work legally for a cause. But the process and costs must be clear from the start. Understanding the Section 8 company registration fees and the NGO procedure for registration helps in better planning.

Need expert help? Trust Tax NGO Experts and NGO Experts Company. They provide the best registration support in India.