Piece of the Stars and Stripes' back line under Mauricio Pochettino, including being named the US Men's Player of the Year in 2025. Often seen with a big smile on his face, Richards is deeply serious about his craft. And he is determined to hold his own as the USA prepares to take on Australia and Paraguay.

And Turkiye is in Group D of the worldwide showpiece. Richards sat depressed with FIFA to debate live in a World Cup on home-based soil, challenging himself in contradiction of the finest players in the world, and commerce with high prospects. When I think of the World Cup, I feel pride. I think existence able to play for your country on the world's biggest stage.

And everybody who supported me along the way. I want to be one of the people to help our country win its first World Cup, so in 2022, even though it hurt, it pushed me for 2026. Having had that injury right before the 2022 World Cup, I think it helped me prepare for 2026. I was a 22-year-old kid back then.

Maybe I was a bit naive about certain things like recovery and stuff like that. But ever since that moment, I've made sure that I can be in this squad for the Football World Cup 2026, and, again, help my team wherever we go in this World Cup. But I think it means even more to me now.

Sell FIFA World Cup: Home-Soil Pressure Inspires Players to Chase History and Transform Soccer in America Forever

Because I just barely missed out on the last one. So, still a lot of work to be done, I still have to get there and play the games, but I know if I put my best foot forward, then I can help the team. This World Cup being on home soil, I think it adds a little bit of pressure on us. But pressure builds diamonds.

So I think that's something that we're very excited for, and we have our own pressure. A model we've always had is to change soccer in America forever. And I think this cycle, this World Cup, is a chance for us to do that. And I think when you think of the last World Cup on American soil. For now, learn more about sell FIFA World Cup 2026 Tickets.

FIFA World Cup 2026: US Stars Embrace Pressure and Aim to Leave Lasting Legacy on Home Soil

It kind of birthed our national soccer league, so we're really looking forward to the performances we're going to put on the pitch, but also the kind of legacy we're going to leave after this. I think it's making sure that we hold each other accountable, but also trying to improve and not being happy with where we are, always wanting to push to do more.

FIFA focuses on social impact at FIFA 2026

- IFA will use the FIFA World Cup 2026 to indorse worldwide movements on agreement, peace, teaching, and infant wellbeing.
- Initiatives like Problematic Unites the World, No Chauvinism, and Be Full of Life determination will be demonstrated on stadium awnings, digital platforms, and match venues.
- The No Discrimination crusade strengthens FIFA's zero-tolerance stance and encourages troupes and fans to Attend, Stand Up, Show Up in contradiction of judgment.

I think that's probably the No. 1 thing, which is that we always want to push our expectations and become better. I'd be lying if I said that we don't hear a lot of noise surrounding us or the pressure that's on our shoulders, but again, this is something that we're looking forward to.

Sell FIFA World Cup Final Tickets: US Players Determined to Silence Critics and Make Fans Proud on Home Soil

If you play a professional sport, you're always going to have some kind of noise around you, so we want to be able to hush the haters, and for our supporters, we want to make them proud. That's our No. 1 thing, is that everybody's going to have an opinion, but we want to show up for the people who really support us.

I think every emotion will probably hit. happiness, euphoria, nostalgia, pride, excitement, I think everything will kind of hit all at once. I try not to think too far ahead, but just hearing that first national anthem goes off right before the opening game of the World Cup on home soil.

I don't think any feeling in the world can replicate that. That's something that I've dreamed about since I was ten years old, watching my first national team game, and I think it's something that hopefully can become a reality very soon. Preparation gives me the belief. I do it week in and week out in the league that I'm playing in.
